

Volume 6, Issue 3

March 2009

MTO Sufi Association Newsletter

Love

How do I love thee?

*Like red roses opening in the early morning mist,
Like snow flakes that gracefully fall on my head,
Like the lavender fragrance spreading
With the rising sun,
Like the first day of spring which renews
Hope of life,
Like a jasmine blossom in its glowing purity,
Like cherry blossoms blanketing my soul,
Like a rain drop that rushes down my face,
How do I love thee?*

It's the Eighth wonder of the world.

Professor Nader Angha

Happy Norouz

We wish you a

Prosperous,

Peaceful

Happy

Persian

New Year

Volume 6, Issue 3

March 2009

MTO Sufi Association Newsletter

Love

KABA

The point of stability and knowledge is the heart in the human being. This is why in the teaching of Prophets, the heart is so significant. The heart is referred to as the gateway to unseen the heavenly Kingdome, The Kaba and so forth.

Unfortunately people have taken the heart to be only a symbolic reference to something beyond, Where as it is the physical heart which is gateway to the realm of God.

Professor Nader Angha

BOOK

The human beings is a complete "book". To read this book he must learn its alphabets. The prophets have said to read our "book", we must return to our origin, to the source of our being. Read your "book" so you may know yourself, so you may know where you came from, why you are here and what lies beyond your life on earth. The source of life in your heart is the way through which you can make this discovery.

Professor Nader Angha

ALPHABETS

If only the alphabets of the one spiritual book were revealed to man, and the secret of the soul discovered, he would need none of the words sealed in the silent book, and yet would know the story whole.

Mir Ghutbeddin Angha